

I loved this service, the ease and use of VRS is a great advantage to deaf people especially those who rely on ASL as their primary mode of communication. I myself deaf but learn to speak first before learning ASL - I am so happy this is available to all of us. Also I like to comment about leaving messages voice/VRS I think this is excellent use of services for deaf people getting in touch with hearing people ..less chance of misunderstanding.